Re: Grant v. Gov. Herbert

Appellate Court No. 20180997

On December 10, 2018 a Petition for Extraordinary Writ and a Rule 23C Emergency Relief Motion was received by the Utah Supreme Court. The case number is 20180997 and should be indicated on any future filings.

The response is due to be filed within seven (7) days of the date of this notice.

This court will permit documents to be filed by email. Unless the court orders otherwise, the filing of documents and briefs is timely if the email is received before midnight on the last day for filing. A document is deemed filed when the email is received. Sending an email is an electronic signature, and it carries all of the representations and consequences under Rule 40 of the Utah Rules of Appellate Procedure. If a document other than a brief is delivered by email or any other method of filing, a paper copy does not need to be delivered. See Utah Supreme Court Standing Order No. 11. All risks associated with filing by email are borne by the sender. The email address for the Supreme Court is supremecourt@utcourts.gov. The Court emails all documents to the email listed on the State Bar's website for attorneys, or to the email provided by self represented parties.

Sincerely,

/s/ Susan Willis
Judicial Services Manager
